

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC RELATIONS Profile of Educational Program

Degree	Specialty	Programme	Duration of studies
Bachelor	International Economic Relations	International Economic Relations	3 years 10 months (8 semesters)
Master	International Economic Relations	International Marketing	1 year 4 months (3 semesters)
PhD	International Economic Relations	International Economic Relations	4 years

WHAT STUDENTS STUDY

- International Economic Relations
- International Relations and World Politics
- International Environment and Business Processes
- International Project Management
- International Business Analytics
- International Trade
- International Investment
- International Cooperation
- Globalistics
- Business Communications
- Research Methodology and Academic Writing
- Digital Global Economy
- Business Etiquette and Protocol
- International Law
- Management of Foreign Economic Activity
- Information and Communication Technologies
- International Conflicts
- International Marketing
- International Logistics
- International Stock Markets
- Foreign Language (English)
- Foreign Language II (optional)
- International Economic Relations of the 21st Century
- Team Management and Leadership
- Economic Diplomacy

ADVANTAGES OF CHOOSING THIS PROGRAMME

- being an expert in international economics and international economic relations.
- mastering professional, digital, and communication skills, cultural awareness.
- working productively in teams to solve problems of world economic development
- having knowledge of professional terminology in the languages of international business communication.
- having analytical skills in studying the global economy.
- working as: CEOs, managers of enterprises, institutions and organizations; economists in international trade; experts in foreign economic issues; diplomatic agents.